Dear Competitor,

Thank you for your interest in competing at The American Lindy Hop Championships (ALHC). Our dates are October 25-28, 2007. This year's ALHC will be held at the Westin Stamford Hotel, One First Stamford Place in Stamford, Connecticut. We look forward to an exciting and entertaining convention. Following this letter you will find:

- a Competition Entry/Waiver Form
- General rules
- Rules for each division

Please read the entire application including the rules, glossary and waiver. Several of the rules have changed. Choose your division(s) carefully. For example, if you want to do lead/follow dancing enter Strictly Lindy; or if you have choreography with no lifts or throws enter the Classic Division; or, if you have lifts, throws and less than 80% Lindy content enter Open Showcase.

After you have read the rules and waiver complete the Competition Entry Form. Be sure to sign and date the waiver. If, for whatever reason, you compete and have not completed the waiver you will be deemed not to have danced and your placement will be irrevocably lost. So be sure to complete the waiver.

Entries with more than two contestants must complete the Additional Contestants sheet being sure to include the signatures of each contestant.

All contestants are required to purchase a weekend pass at the time the application is submitted. All entry fee(s) must be included with your signed application. Applications must be received no later than September 25, 2007. Once completed please mail them to: Artspectrum, Attention: ALHC, 52 Monterey Street, Detroit, Michigan 48203-3590. Submitting this form does not guarantee your entrance into the division. Most of the divisions have entry limits. Therefore contestants will receive an email confirmation when entry forms have been processed.

Submitting forms early is a good idea.

These forms may not be used to register for any of the levels of Jack and Jill. Registration for those divisions may only be made on the day each is scheduled to take place. Look for deadlines in the ALHC program. Competitors' meetings will be scheduled over the course of the weekend. Attendance is mandatory by at least one member of the performance team. The drawing for dance position for each division will be done at the meeting just prior to your division. All forms must be turned in by this time. These forms will be used to begin the drawing. At this time you may, also, give your music to the Stage Manager.

Thank you again for your interest in ALHC. We look forward to seeing you at the coming event.

Please free to call 313-790-2311) or email info@artspectrum.org with any questions you may have after reading the rules and forms.

ENTRY All divisions, except CABARET, TEAM and PRO/AM, are open only to a couple consisting of one male and one female dancer. Contestants competing as a couple may, therefore, compete in only one of the following: AMERICAN SHOWCASE, CLASSIC, OPEN SHOWCASE, STRICTLY LINDY, JUNIOR, CATS' CORNER (formerly Champions' Strictly) MASTERS or STRICTLY BALBOA. Contestants entering one of the above divisions may also enter CABARET or TEAM. Select your best choice for a competitive division.

Please note that a couple may not enter more than one division they unless are participating in the Cabaret or Team divisions. Individuals entering a couple's division listed above may enter additional divisions with a different partner. Once a division has filled couples may be wait-listed by request for their first choice for a division. In addition individuals are limited to appearances in a maximum of 4 couple divisions.

Contestants entering either AMERICAN SHOWCASE, CLASSIC or OPEN SHOWCASE must be a minimum of eighteen years of age by the date of the competition unless otherwise noted. Contestants in TEAM, CABARET, PRO/AM or one of the JACK & JILL contests must be a minimum of ten years of age by the date of the competition. OPEN JACK & JILL is open to all competitors regardless of age who have entered any and all divisions. Jack and Jill competitors may register themselves only at the event on a first come first served basis.

The order of appearance for each entry for all divisions will be selected at random. The drawing will take place at the competitors' meeting. Should you miss a competitors' meeting your space may be irrevocably lost. Contestants failing to appear on the floor when their names are called during the competition will be scratched from the judges' sheets. Finals may be held in any division, if required, due to the number of entries at the discretion of the judges. Any changes regarding finals will be announced at the competitors' meeting. All divisions must have a minimum of three entries for it to run. A minimum of five couples will be required to award cash.

MUSIC Contestants in divisions other than STRICTLY LINDY, the JACK & JILL divisions, the AMERICAN SHOWCASE preliminaries and CATS' CORNER are responsible for their own music. Music that makes use of more than one tempo is allowed. Heavy metal and hard rock music are prohibited as choices except in the CABARET division. Select the music to which you will dance. Turn it in at the competitors' meeting. All music must be on CDs should be labeled with the contestants' names and division. We suggest you prepare copies at different speeds to appropriately compensate for any speed changes due to the change in equipment or power supply. Every effort will be made to allow contestants to test their music on the equipment which will be used during the actual competition. You are responsible for your music. You must pick up your CD at the end of your division from the Stage Manager. ALHC is not responsible for returning your music.

TIME LIMIT Couple division entries will be allowed a minimum of two (2) minutes and a maximum of three (3) minutes. Please time your performance accordingly. There will be no time warning. There will be a penalty for a time violation. STRICTLY LINDY, TEAM, CABARET, FAST DANCE and JACK & JILL time limits are different – see Division Definitions for applicable time limits.

RESTARTS No restart will be allowed for a contestant who is dissatisfied with his/her music, timing or performance. A music system break down, a broken shoe strap, broken heel, torn dress strap, and like objective problems may justify a restart. A restart will only be allowed by the Chief Judge.

COSTUMES Costumes are not mandatory. However, appropriate attire and/or costumes may enhance your performance. Do not wear jeans, jogging or sweat clothes.

RULES VIOLATIONS An infraction of the rules may cause loss of placement. In severe cases, the violation(s) may cause disqualification.

COMPETITORS' MEETINGS All competitors are required to attend the meeting which precedes their division as follows: Friday, Oct. 26 at 6:30pm, Saturday, Oct. 27 at 12:00pm and Sunday, Oct. 28 at 12:35pm

JUDGING GUIDELINES

JUDGES DECISIONS Judges decisions are final. Protests will not be allowed.

SCORING Most judging panels have seven judges. The first contestant having a majority of first place markings is assigned first place. If the above criteria is not met first place will be determined by relative placement. In the event of a three-three tie the chief judge's marking will be used as the tie-breaker. The following are fundamental factors of dancing on which all competitors will be judged:

VARIETY & CHOREOGRAPHY You are evaluated on what you do, whether choreographed or spontaneous. This means: how the dance is arranged to the music starting with your entrance, moving into the body of the number, concluding with your exit or ending; musical interpretation; variety; contrast of rhythms; and style with a variance in difficulty. Longer is not necessarily better. Keep things short and sweet.

EXECUTION & TEAMWORK The judges look at how well you do what you do: flow; partner interaction; smooth transition from one pattern to another; using good styling, body, hand and footwork.

PROJECTION & SHOWMANSHIP That extra quality which holds the audience's attention. The polish, extra degree of professionalism or flair.

DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY Above the norm: Your execution of very difficult movements and steps requiring intricate and agile moves.

TIMING & BASIC RHYTHM Timing is everything: Timing is the identifiable link between the dancer and the music. Dancing in time with the music, remaining in time throughout the performance and how well the dancers relate to the variety of rhythm and tempo changes is critical.

LINDY CONTENT Please take into account when designing your dances that at this competition Balboa and Collegiate/Vintage Shag are not considered swing dances. Therefore their figures are excluded when determining Lindy content percentages.

COMPETITION DEFINITIONS Please note: Terms that are used in the following section are understood by ALHC to mean:

Lindy Hop is a couple's dance that has an eight count basic interspersed with six count steps and amalgamations from ten to twenty counts or more.

Acrobatics require a person to use one's own momentum to perform a stunt while maintaining some kind of contact with the floor.

Aerials require a person to use their own momentum to perform a trick or stunt in the air. It is not aided by a partner.

Air Steps are partnered tricks or stunts involving momentum that cannot be performed without a partner.

Drops occur when one partner's head is lowered below the waistline of his/her partner. A drop may be assisted or unassisted. Assisted means the performer requires his/her partner's help during the descent or ascent. Unassisted means the performer supports his/her own body weight.

Lifts require one to remove their partner's feet from the floor whether slightly, knee level, waist level or overhead.

DESCRIPTIONS OF THE COMPETITIVE DIVISIONS

ADVANCED JACK & JILL Leaders and followers sign up individually. The division is limited to thirty (30) couples. Competition will be held in three (3) heats of ten (10) couples each. Partners are chosen at random, by the luck of the draw. Music is selected by ALHC. You may be required to dance with more than one partner. Individuals may be chosen to dance in a finals heat, if needed. This division is for seasoned competitors.

AMERICAN SHOWCASE DIVISION This division is the culmination of a series of regional qualifying rounds. This division is only open to couples from the regional qualifying rounds. However, competitors that competed at the previous year's World Championship may opt out of the regional qualification rounds proceeding directly to the semifinals. This Division is open only to American citizens and permanent residents who hold a green card. Anyone who has judged a qualifying contest for this year's semi-finals is not eligible to participate in a qualifying contest or the semi-final round.

Contestants dance to music selected by ALHC in the preliminary rounds. Contestants will be judged equally in two rounds: one slow, one fast. Preliminaries will be danced in heats lasting one and a half (1 ½) minutes. Just as at the benchmark Savoy Ballroom competitions anything goes. All forms of appropriate lifts, drops and air steps are allowed with recognizable Lindy steps in the fast round. Please note that timing, teamwork, footwork and lead/follow skills are the priority. Finalists will dance individually in a slow round. Air steps are not allowed in the slow round. Music for this round is selected by ALHC. Finalists will dance individually in a fast round. Music for this round is chosen by the contestants and must be a minimum of 208bpm. During the fast round contestants may dance for 2 - 3 minutes. Choreography is allowed. Each round will be judged equally.
